Mediation Workshop

Mediating Property Disputes - Essential Law and Skills for Mediators

Given the sky-rocketing of real properties' values in Hong Kong in recent years, it necessarily follows that property disputes are becoming an unavoidable fact of life in today's property landscape. Whether in terms of leasing or tenancy disputes, boundary issues, adverse possession claims, compulsory resumptions, inheritance claims, divorce settlements or commercial vendor and purchaser disputes etc., it is indisputable that real property disputes constitute a major area of Hong Kong civil litigation.

The objectives of this workshop is to explore various issues involved in real property disputes mediation including property valuations, different approaches in different types of claims or disputes, common legal issues involving real properties' disputes would also be discussed.
